

Money in politics

This December we welcomed professor Timothy K. Kuhner, who was awarded with the Fulbright scholar. He spoke to our 2nd of Batxillerat students about "Money in Politics".

The talk was very interesting and instructive, on the one hand, because the students practiced oral comprehension and, on the other, because they learnt some points of the North American political system and how much does money influence current democracies.

